Announcement 106 /2563

Re: Utilization of Panyapiwat Institute of Management Brand for possibly Illegal benefits

Due to the fact that certain groups of individuals have illegally utilized the brand of Panyapiwat Institute of Management (PIM) for credibility in possible recruitment of students of Chinese nationality to enroll in the programs at Panyapiwat Institute of Management, EEC campus or for any illegal purposes. Pictures of PIM or those relating to the institute have been similarly used.

The institute, therefore, issues this official announcement to declare that PIM is not involved in any such actions. In addition, it is aimed to advise that all information, news and activities received should be issued by PIM only, and the institute will not be responsible for any damages resulted from any possible fraud sources. All concerned should employ consideration in news consumption.
